SOUTH RYEGATE.

It was learned with regret yesterday that Mrs. James Johnston of West Newbury had passed away.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian church here gave a chicken pie supper in their vestry Thursday evening and added about $25 to their treasury.

A wedding took place here last Thursday evening. Frank George of Wells River and Miss Lowell Gray of this place being the parties. The Rev. Mr. Wallace officiated. Only a few near friends were present. The happy couple will make their home in Wells River, where Mr. George has a good position in the express business. The bride was one of our esteemed young ladies.

The village was saddened yesterday by the sudden death of Rev. John H. Hall who died suddenly of heart trouble at his home in Providence, R. I., where he had been located since he left here some nine or ten years ago. A great many Barre people will remember Mr. Hall as he had been in exchange with the pastor of the Presbyterian church there several times.

Montpelier City Council Does Well in Sale of Land.

The Montpelier city council has sold 110 acres of the Pratt farm to John Winslow, of Northfield, but the writings cannot be drawn until after January 1st by agreement of the parties.

The selling price is $1,500. It has been reported that all the farm had been sold but this is erroneous for the city owned 70 acres which was bought and really wanted when it purchased the farm last spring. The deal was closed up Saturday morning. Mr. Winslow gives a written agreement in which are set forth certain conditions laid down by the city council for protection of its rights about the pond. The city will have the 34 acres across the pond on which the pumping station is located and 40 acres of meadow, and the big barn which are on the lower side of the highway and nearest the pond. They have reserved all land bordering on the pond.

The council has a right to feel well pleased over their progress this year with the farm. There was considerable opposition when the farm was purchased and many claimed that there was no need of it. The council paid $3,500 for the farm. Since that time they have sold 23 acres to Solon Lawrence for $700 and will sell the hay. It is estimated that there is about 75 tons on the place. Some of this will go to the street department but it can be figured at the usual price. The hay will stand at about $250, while there are some other crops to be sold. This will make at least $3,200 sold from the farm out of the $3,500 invested. There will, of course, be the expense of planting and harvesting some of the crops which will probably bring the amount around $2,000. It will be an easy matter next year to close up the entire farm of the city will be fully repaid for the purchase. Besides saving the desired land the city will have the large barn that stands on the side of the highway nearest the pond, which it has been estimated cost $2,000 to construct.

Meeting Mary Fletcher Hospital.

The annual meeting of the directors of the Mary Fletcher hospital, Burlington, was held Wednesday afternoon, December 2. The reports showed the institution to be in a flourishing condition in every way, and in spite of the fact that building operations have been in progress during the season the number of patients admitted to the hospital during the year was 1,177 and the number of outpatients treated 736, making the total number of patients treated 1,913. Of these 120 paid full rates, 234 paid partial rates, and 1,559 were treated free. The capacity of the hospital has been sixty and the daily average of patients during the year was 50 11-17.

The new buildings when completed will practically double the capacity of the hospital, the new structures meaning an expenditure of at least $140,000, to say nothing of equipment. Dr. Roy Fletcher, president, a new member of the board of directors, who made a thorough examination of the hospital additions previous to the meeting, declared that it was one of the best hospitals in the country. Reports showed that the new buildings would be ready for occupancy early in the new year and the new operating rooms will be ready for use in the near future.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

President, M. H. Buckham; vice-president, Henry Wells; secretary, W. J. Van Dusen; treasurer, C. P. Smith; auditor, Henry Greene; financial committee, C. P. Smith, Henry Greene, J. L. Southwick; committee on the hospital, Dr. J. B. Andrews, assistant superintendent and resident physician, Dr. L. H. Morriss; attending surgeons, Dr. J. B. Wheeler, Dr. H. C. Tinkham, Dr. S. E. Minard, Dr. P. E. McSweney; attending physicians, Dr. H. L. Watkins, Dr. C. A. Paine, Dr. W. A. Lyman, and Dr. J. N. Souther; ophthalmologist, Dr. M. C. Towle; pathologist, Dr. H. H. Stone; proctologist, Dr. D. C. Hawley.

The annual dinner of the directors and members of the staff was held in the large dining room and the bill of fare included venison and other delicacies of the season, as well as the substantial. At the conclusion of the report M. H. Buckham called upon those present to follow an impressive custom by raising and holding their heads in silence for a few moments in memory of Mary Fletcher, the founder of the hospital.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Gibson's Thoughtlessness.

It doesn't occur to The News that Montpelier people were too particular when they insisted that Senator E. W. Gibson of Brattleboro leave town. The surprising thing about it is that Senator Gibson, who has been quarantined at Brattleboro, two members of his household having smallpox, should have said to go to Montpelier at all. It was thoughtless, to say the least.—Rutland News.

Dr. C. A. Emerson.

Dr. Charles W. Emerson, founder of the school of oratory in Boston which bears his name, who died suddenly Tuesday in Mills at the age of 71 years, was a man of striking personality, of the old time and somewhat artificial school of public speaking. He had the faculty of attaching to himself those who came under his instruction, and there will be many throughout the country to mourn his departure. He was the successor in Boston of Prof. Monroe in the teaching of vocal expression. Before taking up this work he was for 20 years in the ministry, which he left because of impaired health.—Springfield Republican.
